

Texas Association of Chicanos in Higher Education Graduate Fellowship Awards

DEADLINE: December 1, 2006

The Texas Association of Chicanos in Higher Education (TACHE) invites applications from Texas residents pursuing studies in community college or graduate or professional schools. TACHE will award the following fellowships:

One fellowship will be awarded to a student whose career emphasis is in community college education. The other fellowship will be awarded to a student whose study emphasis is in university/post graduate education.

Fellowship winners will be notified on or after the deadline dates and the awards will be announced at the Annual TACHE Conference. For more information, visit the TACHE website at www.tache.org.

Applicants must

- Be of Chicano/Latino heritage (one parent fully Hispanic or each parent half Hispanic)
- Be enrolled in a degree-seeking program at an accredited U.S. university full-time
- Have a minimum cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.

Applicants must submit:

- A completed application form (see attached or download from TACHE website);
- Copy of the most current transcript and evidence of current enrollment;
- Two letters of recommendation ( from university faculty members or academic advisor on official school stationary);
- Personal statement (include an essay, no more than two pages, addressing the following factors: socioeconomic background, family and financial responsibilities and other factors that can be considered obstacles in attaining graduate studies; also note in your statement how the TACHE award will be used to support educational career goals and plans for future contributions to the educational advancement of Latinos in Texas)
- A brief resume (include contributions, achievements, awards, honors, and service activities related to the Chicano/Latino culture and community in Texas);
- Photograph (glossy black and white).

Students receiving the TACHE Fellowship are required to become members of TACHE at the time of selection. The student membership fee is $10.00.
